THE SPEAKERSHIP CANVASS—ANOTHER CALL FOR BONDS—WHAT IS NEEDED TO BUILD UP THE NAVY.

THE SPEAKERSHIP CONTEST.

WAITING TO HEAR FROM NEW-ENGLAND CLAIMED FOR MR. REED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Not more than thirty of the 147 Republican Representatives have yet arrived in Washington.

Of course it is understood that New-York will support Mr. Hiseock, and that Mr. Duncell will receive the Minnesota votes.

SUCCESSIVE RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

A PASSENGER'S EXPERIENCE.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—Is this the office of the New-York Tribune? I asked a respectable, well-dressed, pleasant-faced stranger, entering the Washington office of the Tribune this afternoon.

Up to this evening only six of the twenty-four Republican members from New-England had arrived, and in their absence it is impossible to obtain definite and trustworthy information respecting their preferences.

THE FRIENDS OF MR. KASSON CONTINUED TO CLAIM HOURLY ACCESSIONS TO THEIR RANKS, AND THEY ASSERT CONFIDENTLY THAT THEIR CANDIDATE WILL RECEIVE THE MAJORITY.

WHAT THE OFFICIALS SAY.
